26. Find synonyms ( szinonimák) in the text to the following words.

My name is Mary and I love to cook! In fact, cooking is my favourite hobby. I started cooking when I was very young, with my mother, and the first thing we did together was: gingerbread cookies because it was Christmas time. The smells from the kitchen filled the room! Ever since, the kitchen is my favourite part of the house, which is why I spend most of my time there. One of my specialities is roasted chicken with vegetables, all my family loves it! But I rather prefer preparing desserts.

My dream is to attend a cookery course to better my performance in the kitchen.

30. Broken sentences. Find the endings.
The two pigeons and the bird-catcher

Once upon a time, there lived two pigeons. They were husband and wife. They spend their day looking for food. One evening, the wife returned home early. As usual she was waiting for her husband, when suddenly it started raining. She started to worry ....

You never get so late," she whispered to herself.

Just then she saw a bird-catcher coming towards her. In a cage he had a pigeon, ..

"Oh no, what shall I do now" I wish I could help my husband," she said.

Soon, it stopped raining. "Brrr! It is so cold," ....

His clothes were wet. He decided to sit under the same tree where the two pigeons lived. The poor wife sat by her husband's cage. And she started to cry. The husband said ...

This man is shivering and hungry. He needs your help." Hearing this, the wife flew around getting dry twigs. She made a fire for the bird-catcher. Then she looked at the bird-catcher and said, "You are our guest, since I have no food to offer, I will jump into this fire. In few minutes I will become an edible (ehető) item for you. You can eat me."

But the bird-catcher stopped .....

He opened the cage and set the husband free.

"I have been cruel and selfish. I will never trap any bird in my net again," said the bird-catcher and went away. The two pigeons were very happy.
